

Bread for the Journey, Part XXVI:
Plans to Give You Hope and a Future

All Saints Day, Sunday, November 1st

Please listen:

The Trumpet Sounds

American spiritual, arranged by Ian David Coleman.

Performed at Pilgrim Congregational Church in Oak Park by Lux Cantorum Chicago in concert in March 2018.

Wilbert O. Watkins, conductor; Philip Kendall, assistant conductor; Joan Hutchinson, accompanist; and Sam Lauritsen, trumpet soloist.

All Saints Day celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

We remember especially the saints of our congregation who have passed to their eternal rest since All Saints Day last year:

+Steve Michael+ (November 20th)
+Jerome Gaydusek+ (January 10th)
+Lawrence Bakalich+ (February 8th)
+Jan Hapgood+ (February 16th)
+Branislav "Brian" Smetana+ (February 24th)
+Betty Kany+ (March 8th)
+Robert Nowak+ (March 27th)
+Emily Rusnak+ (April 8th)

Votive candles will be offered for use in remembering the faithful departed in our prayers. These candles will be available at the front entrance to the sanctuary on Woodside Road, lit by an acolyte using a taper from a distance of six feet or more, and carried by individuals to a table at the left front of the nave. Please do observe physical distancing when receiving and placing the candles.

For waters break forth in the wilderness,
and streams in the desert;
the burning sand shall become a pool,
and the thirsty ground springs of water... (Isaiah 35:6b-7a).

Preparing a place for you... someday.

Removal and reconstruction of the west and south parking lots began earlier this month and is nearing completion.

If you will be attending in-person worship this Sunday please use the north parking lot adjacent to 31st Street or park on Maplewood Road.

Many thanks to John Kostelny and Rafael Martinez for planning, coordinating and overseeing this big project. Construction by Budget Paving.

And thank you for continuing to support the congregation and its ministries throughout these soul-testing days.

"For I know the plans I have for you," declares the Lord, 'plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future'" (Jeremiah 9:11).

Nunc Dimittis

Composed by Paul Smith. Performed by VOCES8.

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace
according to thy word.
For mine eyes have seen thy salvation,
Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
To be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of thy people Israel.

Chicago doctor, Emily Landon, an infectious disease specialist with the University of Chicago Medicine, spoke Thursday as a second surge of coronavirus cases climbs in Illinois. Dr. Landon is also known to Sts. Peter and Paul through singing for many years with Lux Cantorum Chicago. Listen to her HERE.

Some reminders for NOT attending in-person worship:

1) If you are not feeling well or are exhibiting cold or flu-like symptoms; 2) have been exposed to COVID-19; 3) have a compromised immune system; or 4) are at high risk of exposing others. Please read the document of guidelines HERE.
