

Bread for the Journey: May 27, 2020
Part 15: "Creation, Fall and Flood"

Come Holy Spirit!

Happy Pentecost!

2009. Altar piece. Church of the Holy Spirit, Singapore.

The pastor of the Church of the Holy Spirit, Eutaquio Santimano, writes: "Pentecost (Ancient Greek: πεντηκοστή [ἡμέρα], pentekostē [hēmera], "the fiftieth day") is one of the prominent feasts in the Christian liturgical year, celebrated on the 49th day (7 weeks) after Easter Sunday---or the 50th day inclusively, hence its name. Pentecost falls on the tenth day after Ascension Thursday. Historically and symbolically related to the Jewish harvest festival of Shavuot or the day, fifty days after the Exodus, on which God gave the Ten Commandments at Mount Sinai, Pentecost now also commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and other followers of Jesus as described in the Book of Acts, Chapter 2 in the New Testament. For this reason, Pentecost is sometimes described as "the Church's birthday".

More from Rick and Ted...

Agnus Day is the creation of Pastor James Wetzstein, a Lutheran pastor. Jim serves as University Pastor at Valparaiso University, where his student charges keep him up late and his head full of big ideas. Jim lives with his wife Tracey and their son Gabriel. Tracey often helps with punch lines. She's a trial attorney who knows how to get a point across. Gabe, a growing humorist in his own right, provides the occasional zinger. There's a pair of dogs, a couple of cats, but no sheep.

Nun ruhen alle Wälder

By J. S. Bach

Performed by the Concordia College (Bronxville, New York) Alumni Virtual Choir,

Ralph Schultz, conductor; Jane Lauritsen, soprano.

Lord Jesus who dost love me,
Oh Spread thy wings above me
And shield me from all harm
Though satan would devour me
Let angel guards sing o'er me.
This Child of God shall meet no harm.

A very strong proof of this destruction of death and its conquest by the cross is supplied by a present fact, namely this. All the disciples of Christ despise death; they take the offensive against it and, instead of fearing it, by the sign of the cross and by faith in Christ trample on it as on something dead (St. Athanasius, fourth century).

I invite you to give your attention to the above resources for re-engaging the congregation at Sts. Peter and Paul in public worship. As you will see, this restart will call for the time and energies of many of us and the cooperation of everyone over an extended period of time. When the congregation re-engages in public worship will depend almost entirely upon how the congregation re-engages---meaning the safest possible means of reopening. Please be willing to offer your assistance and services as our congregational leadership develops an agreed upon plan as well as executing that plan weekly and even monthly for some time to come. As some have said, this will be more like turning on a dimmer switch than an ordinary light switch. Pray that the Holy Spirit will guide all in safety and faithfulness during the days ahead.---djl

“Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy. O Christ, hear us. In mercy hear us. God, the Father in heaven, have mercy on us. God, the Son, redeemer of the world, have mercy on us. God, the Holy Spirit, have mercy on us. Holy Trinity, one God, have mercy on us. Be gracious to us. Spare us, good Lord...” (from the opening verses of The Litany, Lutheran Book of Worship, pages 168ff).

Please consider praying (and singing) The Litany in your homes during the evening hours.
